D1 Arrive in Xi'an

Xi'an was the first Chinese city to open its doors to the world during the Tang Dynasty. Over a period of more than 2000 years, Xi'an was the capital of eleven Chinese dynasties. Upon arrival, you will visit the Ancient City Wall, which is not only the most complete city wall remaining in China, but is also one of the largest and most complete ancient military defense systems in the world. Then, visit the Big Wild Goose Pagoda, the symbol of the city. It is said to have been built to house and protect the Buddhist scriptures collected by the Chinese monk Xuan Zang, one of the protagonists in the classic Chinese novel "Journey to the West".
